Come and join us for a wonderful opportunity to learn two critical needs languages and learn about their cultures. These languages are becoming increasingly vital to the US in terms of culture, commerce, security and politics. Come explore with us!

STARTALK-SIPHUR 2010, targeted for high school students and a few college students, is a three-week summer intensive language program that runs from June 21 to July 9.

The program consists of :

- Morning in-class instruction,
- Afternoon extracurricular activities (Film, Drama, Poetry and Rangoli&Henna Design clubs)
- Evening culture classes (yoga, classical music and dance classes)
- Saturday field-trips.
